"All false, unsound, ill veil'n in Pandemonium dress'd."—Cleveland.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 18th, 1862

HONORABLE MENTION.

When scurrilous jampooners cry ignorant doctors assail us, be cause our sentiments are free and beyond the measure of bribery or intimidation, it is grateful to find that we have merited the eulogium of a distinguished author, whose works on South America are so well and favorably known. This unexpected testimony is a splendid answer to the malicious insinuation, thrown out by the Nacional and Tribuna, who, after a long and inglorious existence, have earned the character of public tormentors. Clear diplomat of honesty and public worth is established by the fact that our "teachers" colleague calls us an enemy of the State, while the author of "Brazil and the River Plate" declares we have rendered calculable service to the Argentine Republic.

Readers! which do you believe ? Dr. Varela or Mr Hadfield ?

London, 7th October 1862.

Mr Hadfield presents his compliments to the Editor of the STANDARD, and begs to say he has given the greatest possible circulation to the extracts from that paper, which can be of interest to the British public. He thanks the editor for the frequent mention of his name, as an advocate for, and well-wisher of, Buenos Ayres; and it will be the fault of the Government if the present favorable opportunity for inaugurating railways, on a large and comprehensive scale, is not availed of. Pen pleas under a delusion that the British public will subscribe to any undertaking having a tangible guarantee attached to it The difficulty in raising the required capital for the Great Southern Railway, with a 7 per cent guarantee, backed by one of the most influential directories ever formed for such a purpose, is the best answer that the opening afforded may be made much of, if judiciously used. Mr Hadfield cannot express, in sufficiently appropriate terms, his sense of the services which the Editor of the STANDARD has rendered to the advancement and progress of the Argentine Confederation, and of Buenos Ayres in particular.

THE NEW BANK

The establishment of the London and River Plate Bank seems no longer a matter of doubt. The manager has arrived, the concessions come, more are on their way, the offices, we believe, are already taken, and the men in charge of the concern seem to be of the right stamp, and of a pushing character.

We learn that application has been made to the National Government for the right of emission, which in all probability will be granted, as it will be beneficial to the commerce of Buenos Ayres and advantageous to the Republic at large.

It may, and no doubt will be urged, that to grant to this bank the power of emission, would be encroaching on the right of the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres; but we have yet to learn that this Bank possesses a national, as well as provincial monopoly, and has the power of keeping the currency of this country in its present lamentable state.

The Government has evinced an anxiety to put a fixed value on the currency, and some time since introduced a measure which, although rejected here, was approved of in London.

If the National Government is sincere in its desire to regulate the currency, and put a fixed value on paper, it can adopt no better plan than to concede to the new Bank the right of emission, on its depositing proper securities to represent its issue.

We will not now enter into the question of rights with the Provincial Bank, as dispute with it would only delay the currency, we will admit, for the sake of argument, that, for the province of Buenos Aires, it has exclusive right of emission, but is this any reason why it should have it for the whole republic? The city of Buenos Aires is now de jure et de facto, the capital of the republic, and, as such, the proper site for a grand foreign Bank.

But, in a purely provincial business, the Provincial Bank has been found altogether inadequate, for the wants and requirements of this province alone, how much more so will it be for the whole republic. The paper money is at present fearfully subject to pay for the clip of 1862 ; but money is now beginning to be required for other things than wool. The cotton of Cordova, the silver of San Juan, and the minerals of Cuyo, will be arriving ; and had not Texas, the cotton from Santa Fe and Corrientes will soon be a reality. We want, therefore, a Bank and convertible paper, and not a mixing or winnowing of the Casa de Moneda will be half as serviceable to the country as the adoption of a fair backing system. Let every such institution stand on its own bottom, and then people will know what they are worth.

The Maua Bank, a few years ago, was almost unknown in this city without government patronage, monopoly, or any thing of the kind, it has worked its way up to a position second to none in this city.

The London and River Plate Bank has even brighter prospects as it is an English institution, and will undoubtedly be supported by every English merchant in Town.

The sequel of the old Casa de Moneda is evident to us all. It will sink into a sort of land and mortgage concern, and can no longer oppose its bills to the commercial Bank of the town.

We cannot, therefore, suppose that the President will lend his influence to support an institution which seems to treat more in hopes than reality, and when the paid-up capital in the hands

The London River Plate Bank asks for the right of emission. If it will deposit good bona fide securities to represent such emission, and pay on demand in specie, no free, liberal or enlightened Government should refuse it.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

In noticing the arrival of the Papal Nuncio from Paraná, we forgot to salute the worthy ecclesiastic, Dr Juan José Alvarez, one of the most exemplary members of the national clergy; who has been educated at the University of this city, he returns now after an absence of over ten years. Dr Alvarez enjoys the friendship of a large and respectable circle here, and his name has figured honorably in a prolix refutation (published by the native press) of Dr Lamond's speculative vagaries. It affords us sincere pleasure to count upon such pure defenders of Christianity in a country where revolution says Rivadavia, has injured public morals.

Railway fever has now set in on both sides of the River Plate Our friend, Mr Walter Bourn, C.E., has received instructions by last packet, from a London firm, to make the canvass, &c., for the railway proposed by D. Ramon Rodriguez, to run from Montevideo to Durazno, a distance of 35 leagues. It is said that this line has been already surveyed. Nevertheless, we applaud a new move on the subject. Mr Bourne has proved his engineering skill in the sectional plan of B. Ayres, and a graceful monument to Chris Meyer.

After last week's rain, we find Colonel Pantano and General Mansilla canting off all pur notices ; they have learned an allusion with Alphonse Stoda, and their united vis inertiæ will reduce us shortly to a regular state of siege. The Palermo road is in a lamentable plight, and attending funerals to the Recoleta is no brook neck a business as a Galway steeplechase. Yet in the gashouse we see some hundred tons of ashes, which would make a magnificent causeway, if our Municipality would take the trouble to strew it before Retiro.

The Palace of Palermo is a mournful ruin : the guilty memories of the place would be fittingly expiated by establishing a school or other public institution in the splendid locality, which at present it is turned to no purpose, though possessing unrivalled accommodation.

Two fashionable spells, necessarily for dancing, had an agreeable end on Saturday, in the cafés Peru ; owing to some previous disagreement, one dame resorted to insult the other. A scowling, keeping close to the wall, he said, un peseta, " I keep no change, sir," to which the other replied, " If you may, but still you're a scapegrace." Hereupon, they came to closer contact, and an unparliamentary shindy took place, to the edification of the admiring by standers.

Sr. Aimenia, of Corrientes, one of our most earnest proselytes in the cotton mania is making arrangements to have it ginned in Corrientes by his estancia, or planing some of the crop, which we are to receive in April or right days per "Lady of the Lake." We have given him one of the trains of Mr Fenton's gins, of which we sent to the various members of Government, last week. The cost of seed now to arrive, is all Egyptian, probably most suited to our climate ; but in another quarter we shall be able to see which will be, we suppose, Georgian. We intend to appoint agents throughout the Republic, and if each province possesses a Aimenia or a Cullen, our labours must be crowned with the most triumphant success.

The Tribuna falsely repeats the assertion that the Government had ceased subscribing. We don't want such subscription ; but the S de Wants our papers for the foreign agents who don't read Spanish. Hence our subscription is no subsidy or bribe, and we treat the Gov exactly as a private party, in our editorial columns.

President Mitre knows, from personal experience, how little an independent writer thinks of patronage, and Gov. Saavedra did not subscribe to us from mere sympathy, as 1400 supporters are quite able to support us ones ally.

ANOTHER CAMP REFORM.

Another loan to the camp would be an increase in the number of Municipales. They are at present not sufficiently numerous, to carry a majority in any meeting the Juez appoints ; as he generally speaking, takes special care to nominate a majority of his own creatures. This indeed is very much the election day is not published and the great bulk of the people do not know that the general annual election is, or should be held on a fixed day; consequently the election passes off unknown to many. Those who do vote receive their ticket from the alcalde or taniente without knowing (in the majority of cases) even the name of the person whom they vote for, simply because they cannot read, the tenientes very often in the same predicament, which is by no means surprising, for it is only last year we were blessed in the camp with a junior of peace who could neither read nor write ! How is it possible to pass documents and contracts legally authorised by this functionary in the following form : "Por autorizacion de—Juez de Paz y Comisario, por no saberlo hacer Firmo de ruel." But to return to the subject. I may ask if the person receiving the ticket from the alcalde knew the Candidate to be his greatest enemy would he vote against him ? No. To oppose the alcalde would be treason in the eyes of the gaucho who is generally the only municipal elector. Oh ! Liberty, how beautiful you are in theory, and how much abused in practice. British subjects who come from a monarchical but a thoroughly free country, disdain this election farce, and though they are the most numerous and most wealthy foreign body in the country, they scarcely ever vote. I may state, for the benefit of our contradictors, that if the registers were examined, there would not be found on an average one vote for each Partido. Out of one hundred & fourteen municipals elected last year to replace retiring members, we find the wealthy British body represented through all the plains of Buenos Ayres by one Irishman and one Scotchman.

THE AMERICAN WAR

THE BATTLE OF SHARPSBURG

A great battle has taken place at Sharpsburg—great in the numbers engaged, in the issues involved, and in the leadership and bravery of both armies. The stage on one side was a tableau in Maryland, an invasion of Pennsylvania, and perhaps, the capture of Washington on the other, the completion destruction of the main rebel army, which would end forever the dream of a southern confederacy. To decide these issues most less than 150,000 armed and fifty thousand more were engaged in deadly strife last Wednesday. Ten thousand men have been killed and wounded on the national side, a of perhaps an equal number on the confederate side, but with all this carnage, no decisive result has been arrived at. True, we have won the field. The enemy was driven from every point save one on the left, but that one happened to be the most important of all, as that then Burnside succeeded in carrying it the rebel army would have been routed. As it is, Lee and Jackson, with their armies, are still upon Maryland soil, ready to resist an attack which it seems McClellan did not see fit to make up to yesterday noon.

It is now very evident that the recovery was mistaken in supposing that the whole rebel army was in Maryland previous to the taking of Harper's Ferry. This was not so. The capture of that place, so humiliating to our arms, enabled the confederate not only to save the remnant of Longstreet's army which was defeated at South Mountain, but also to send across the bulk of the rebel forces from the south bank of the Potomac. Hence the indecisive battle of Wednesday. The report that Harper's Ferry was re-possessed by our troops is not confirmed, nor do we see how it can be true under any circumstances, and if the rebels are defeated when the battle is resumed they can safely retreat across the Potomac under the guns of that strong position, unless, indeed, arrangements have been made for cutting them off on the south side.

Our immediate future is, however, full of encouragement. Our army has been victorious. It has won two great battles. The rebels are defeated still, but they hug the shore of the Potomac. They are checked—the invasion need no longer be feared ; and they must soon be seriously embarrassed by their wounded. Meanwhile immense reinforcements are hurrying forward to General McClellan. He will receive ten new regiments for the rebels' one. By this time how small to have thirty thousand militia in Pennsylvania and as many new troops from Washington. If the rebels hold their position, and no battle was fought yesterday afternoon, an entirely fresh army may be launched upon them to day. We very much fear, however, that the next news will be the safe retreat of the confederates to the south bank of the Potomac, with a view to fall back on Winchester as a base for future operations.

In the meantime we may safely assume that henceforth the rebel armies will be steadily pressed south. Our enormous levies are or soon will be ready to take the field, and if there be any virtue in numbers, bravery, splendid arms, and by this time skilled leadership, the rebellion will be subdued finally crushed by mid winter.

AN ACT OF JUSTICE.

General Butler has made the following special order :

"It is made to appear to the commanding general that Marcellin Sicard an old soldier of the war of 1815, under Jackson, did not give up his arms under the general order N. 80, and has been sentenced by the provost court to imprisonment for thirty days ; therefore.

Ku wing the love an old soldier has for his arms, and believing that something is to be pardoned to that fond feeling, the sentence is remitted.

GARIBALDI.

The Patrie of last evening publishes a letter from its correspondent at Speezia, in which he maintains the truth of his previous assertion that 125,000 francs had been sent to Garibaldi by Englishmen, for the General's companions. The same correspondent says :—"I have reason to believe that a conference has taken place between King Victor Emmanuel and Garibaldi."

The Patrie and La Presse state that a kind of understanding exists between Garibaldi and some English agents, with a view to the occupation of Sicily by England, until the evacuation of Rome by the French takes place.

CHINA.

(From a Correspondent.)

Hongkong, August 1, 1862.

A terrible typhoon has been raging long, Manila, Whampoa and Canton, on the 27th July. Great damage was done to property, and more than 10,000 men lost their lives. The centre of the typhoon passed over Whampoa and Canton, but at Hong kong it merely blew a heavy gale. At Whampoa the number of vessels lost, particularly Chinese, is enormous, amounting to about 300. The suburbs of Whampoa, Newtown and Bamboo town, are nothing more than ruins, and nearly every man lost. The steamers Ariel, of Canton, are all blown ashore, and the Imperial fleet, at that time lying in Whampoa reach, totally destroyed. The fleet consisted of ten guns of war and 180 transport vessels. At Hongkong the sea rose eight feet above the highest flood.

We have to lament the sudden death of Mr. A. Fraser, partner in the well known house of Babigan, Hubauer and Co., in Hongkong.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

ORDINATION TO THE SECOND CHURCH OF CHARLESTOWN.—On Tuesday last, 30th ult., the Presbytery of Dunoon assembled in the Parish Church there, and after despatch of other business, proceeded to the ordination of the Rev. Marcin P. Ferguson to this foreign charge. This young clergyman has been labouring for some years past at Innellan with very great acceptance. He was recently selected by a committee of the Church of Scotland to proceed to fill the office at South Presbyterian minister at Charleston near Buenos Ayres, where a large and influential Scotch population are resident, and have built a handsome church and house. Innellan being within the bounds of Dunoon Presbytery, they were requested to ordain him. The Rev. Alex. M'Farish of Inveraillan presided on the occasion. The trial, examinations, discourses, &c., having been satisfactorily gone through the young clergyman was solemnly ordained to the ministry, and received the right hand of fellowship from the brethren. Thereafter Mr. M'Farish delivered a most suitable and impressive charge to the young minister on the sacred duties now devolving on him, and pointed out with great force the importance of his labours in the new and distant field to which he has been appointed. Nearly all the Presbytery, besides a numerous circle of friends, were present in the church at the interesting and solemn ceremony. In the evening the Rev. the moderator Dr. Clark, of Dunoon entertained the young minister, the speech to of Presbytery, and friends, including Mr. G. Gilmour, of Glasgow representing the South American congregation to dinner, when the proposals and hopes of the new charge were cordially discussed. This settlement speaks volumes for the religious liberty enjoyed by our fellow-countrymen who have emigrated to this and the other numerous fertile plains of the district watered by the Rio de la Plata, where a liberal and religious Government is no deterrent of people to go all the social and religious institutions which those who may adopt their country enjoyed in the mother land we cannot doubt but that a large and respectable class of immigrants will seek a splendid field for their capital and labour.—Scotsman.

From the North British Daily Mail Oct 4th 1862.

PRESENTS FOR THE KING OF MADAGASCAR.—The presents offered by the English Government to the King of Madagascar, Radama II., consist of 10 cases, and 6 casks, a song either cup or bowl, a silver mast of Queen Victoria's yacht in exquisitely bound, a parcel of velvet mantle, a sword, a gun, musical instruments, a silver cup, a pair of silver goblets, a dress and uniform. The value of these articles is about 10,000. The Government of the Emperor of the French has also made magnificent presents to King Radama, a part of which, consisting of arms, military uniforms, and Court dress was exhibited on the second of December last under the care of Baron Ernouard de Carbigny. In addition, Mr. Lambert, on his return to Tananarive in June last, was the bearer of two crowns destined for the King and Queen. The Royal flag of Madagascar is white with a red border; in the centre is a spread eagle, standing on a globe, with a crown above its head.

EMIGRATION TO THE RIVER PLATE. A very interesting little pamphlet, under the title of "The Republic of Uruguay, Eastern Video), Geographical, Social, and Political," has just been published, by authority of the Monte Video Government, with the view of attracting the attention of intending emigrants to that land of promise If the statements are to be relied upon—and we see no reason to doubt them, being principally vouched for by an old resident, Mr. M'Cull, an English subject—no finer opening can be found for the grazier and the agriculturist than Uruguay and the River Plate, whilst to the goods and manufactures as well as to the trade of Bahia, Rio, Hubauer and Co., Hongkong.

The population of the Republic appears to be rapidly increasing, it having been 70,000 in 1826, 140,000 in 1836, 240,000 in 1842, 200,000 in 1800, and, it is believed, 300,000 at present. The climate is described as one of the most healthy in the world, and those looking for a distant home, where industry and thrift may make a fortune, cannot do better than consult this little work, which is published by Mr. Effingham Wilson.—Morning Post.

LOCAL EVENTS.

LYNCH COMPANY, Messrs Rossi and Mazzy of this company have left for Montevideo by the supplementary mail to join the Packet for Europe.

This is a dissolution of the company.

J. MACRICHAN, Engineer of the S. Juan mines is recovered from his late illness, which has prevented him from terminating the objects of his visit to this place.

ITEM, The Scandinavia from United States has brought out a cargo consigned to Mr Greenway.

In a few days we shall have ice in all the principal establishments in town.

CUTTER SEERY we cannot give any for the present, our stock being exhausted as well as that of the works on its culture.

As soon the Lady of the Lake arrives we shall hasten to place it at the disposal of applicants.

SALARO NAVIGATION Co. Mr Willcock Koch C.E. has come out with Don Esteban Rams from the Rio Salado to survey the course of the Rio Salado.

THE BUEN RAILWAY. Is now in the hands of Mr James C. Sturgess, C. E. and present Director of the public works in this city, Mr. Alphonse Lavieve the previous concessionaire having transferred it by permission of Government.

INDIANS. The prisoners lately taken by Gelbor frontier troops in the last encounter are already on their way to town and expected within a few days.

CHA COMOS RAILWAY. Mr. Lumb concessionaire of this line has already presented to the Government the article of association and statutes of the company, which the Government will approve of as soon as may.

NEW MARKET. A good project has been presented to the municipality for the demolition of the present market place and construction of a new one in its site.

We hear the municipality are reluctant to accede to this request, it being their intention to use their best means for its removal from its present situation, further out of the centre of the town.

QUE QUESTION. A decision has been given by the Justice of the Peace of the Catedral al Norte against the Gas Company for entry of the gas-regulator from an establishment situated in a third parish.

DRS. LUIS SAENS PEÑA, and Federico Pinedo have been appointed Justices of Commerce.

We think the appointment has been very judicious and that it will satisfy the expectations of the public.

NEW SEASON OPERA. We hear Mollenhauer will shortly appear on Colon stage in a new Spanish opera called Isabel Labiginosa.

Messrs Clifton Walter and Enamorado of the Spanish Dramatic Co. will accompany her.

ARTEGUI. The house and property of the widow of the late Admiral Rippon will be sold by auction on Friday next by Mr. Billinghurst.

THE OPERA.—gave on Sunday night a first rate performance in which almost all the parts were much applauded.

The house was rather empty and the difference between Colon and Victoria theatre very marked.

ROSARIO.—The law of public Bank lately given by the Legislature has been approved of by the Government contrary to the general belief. This measure will create considerable competition to some title-deeds of property sold by the late provincial Government.

The Indians had invaded again, but only taken away a few bullocks.

The Editor of the "Diario" had been appointed Secretary to the chief of Police.

Entre Rios.—The last dates from this province bring no news of importance. The papers are dull, every editorial is an apology in defence of Urquiza; it seems that his person and his province are one and the same thing.
